Description of Available Benefits:

The insurance described herein is a temporary major medical insurance plan. This plan covers eligible expenses caused by an illness or injury and incurred from any doctor or hospital within the USA.

How Coverage Works:

1. All expenses are applied toward the deductible.
2. Once the deductible has been fulfilled, the policy will cover 100% up to $1,000,000.

The Short Term Major Medical plan is set up to be as simple as possible – No co-pay & No coinsurance. Policy Maximum and deductible are per person, per policy period. There is a choice of $100, $250, $500, $1,000, $2,500, $5,000, or $10,000 deductibles.

Lock-in Short-Term Medical Protection up to 11 Months:

With government regulation limiting short-term medical insurance to a 90 day term there has been great concern about lingering or catastrophic health issues that occur during the policy but could extend beyond the policy's limited 90 day term time frame. Previously, when reapplying for short-term medical coverage, this condition would be considered pre-existing on all subsequent policies but not anymore.

Petersen International Underwriters (PIU), the administrator of the EZ short-term medical plan, has created an innovative solution to remove the pre-existing penalty between multiple policies. PIU has now established a retro pre-ex-date that will remain constant through all consecutive policy terms, allowing up to 11 months of coverage before the pre-existing date resets.

Yes the EZ short-term plan by law is still limited to a 3 month term but you can now apply for consecutive policies totaling 11 months in the aggregate (3 + 3 + 3 + 2 = 11 months). You could even apply for any combination of policies that total 11 months maximum (11 one month policies for example). A renewal offer notice is emailed to you as well as your agent 2 weeks prior to the expiry date of your coverage.

Now, there are no longer concerns about securing temporary coverage for only 90 days of coverage. Yes a new renewal offer has to be completed each time but our renewal offer contains NO health questions so it's EZ to reapply.
